Attorney General Breathitt Writes Opinion

Concerning Commonwealth's Attorney's Office in This District

Attorney General James Breathitt was in Williamsburg two weeks ago when the various candidates announced, and upon request has written the following opinion which we herewith publish in full.

"It appears that the present Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. Snyder, was elected in the old 26th Judicial District, which included Knox and Whitley Counties, now composing the 34th Judicial District, and which latter district was created by the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, Acts of 1910, chapter 20, page 72. This act provides that:

"The Hon. Joseph B. Snyder, of Whitley County, Kentucky, at present Commonwealth's Attorney for the 26th Judicial District, shall be for the remainder of the term for which he was elected, Commonwealth's Attorney of the 34th Judicial District consisting of the counties of Knox and Whitley as created by this act."

"It is quite evident that the General Assembly would not have the power, under the constitution of the State, to legislate an officer out of his office during the term for which he was elected. While the Legislature might abolish the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, until that office has been abolished the Legislature would have no power to turn an officer out during the term for which he was elected. If as not should have that effect, it would be plainly unconstitutional, so far as it affected the rights of the officers then in commission and acting in the district as established at the time of the passage of the new act.

For this reason the Legislature in its wisdom undertook to say, and did say that the term of the Commonwealth's Attorney of the 26th Judicial District should not be affected by the creation of the new district, but he should simply be confined, in the performance of his official duties, to the two counties composing the new or 34th District.

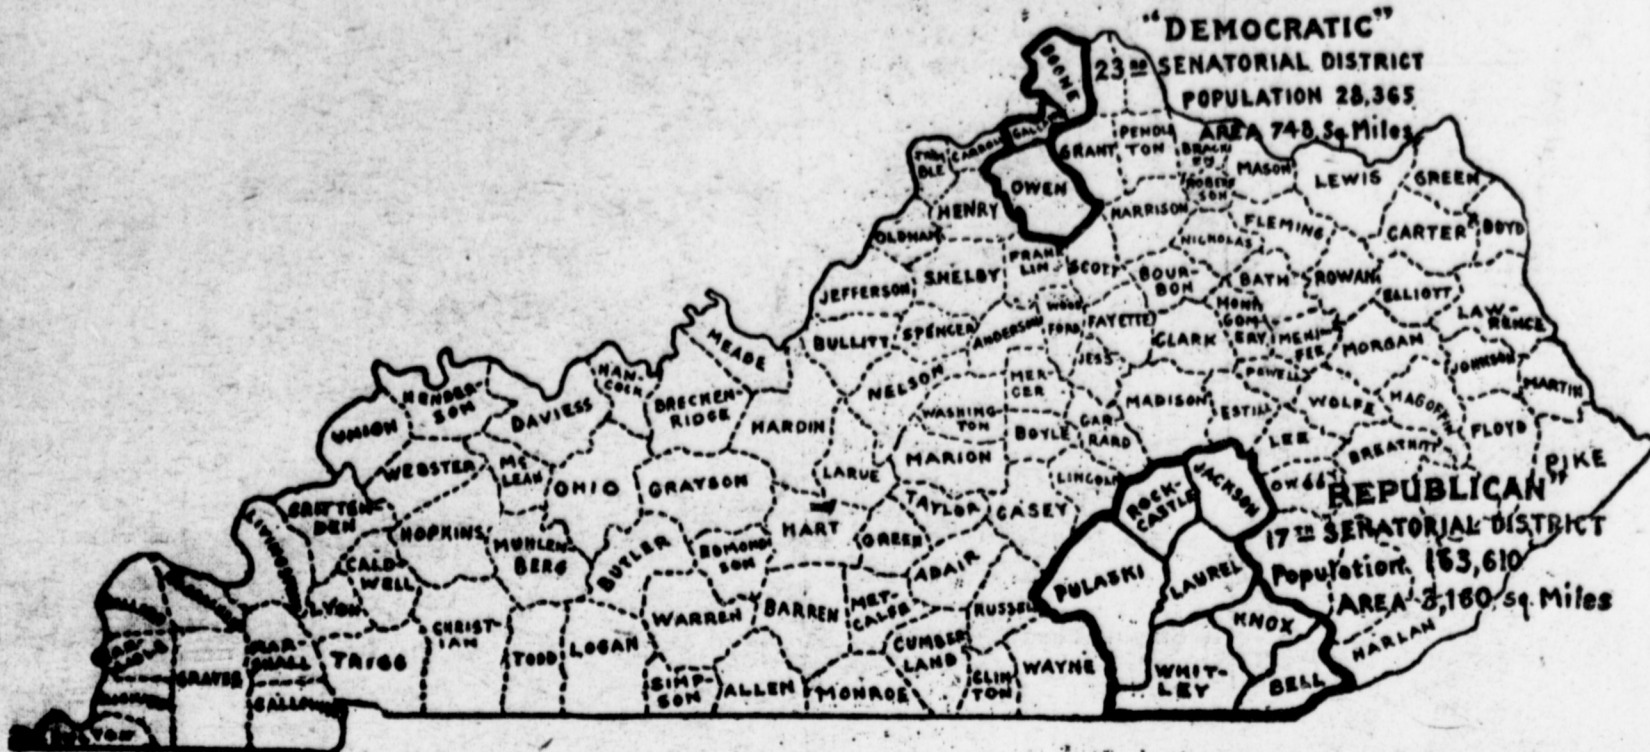

I think the case of Field vs. State Board of Election Commissioners, settled the question. The facts in that case were very similar, and identical with the facts in the Snyder case. The court said, in passing on the question of a vacancy, that:

"There was no vacancy in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the 33rd Judicial District to be filled at the November election 1907, because Field could not be legislated out of the office of Commonwealth's Attorney by the act creating the district. Second, that the name of Eversole was not properly placed upon the ballot. For which reason the election as to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney in the district under question was void."

The case of Adams vs. Roberts, reported in 26th Ky. Law Reported, 1270, also throws some light on this question, while the facts were not precisely the same as those under consideration. In that case Adams raised in Magoffin county, and Magoffin was cut off and placed in another district. Thereafter Adams moved into Lee county, which was in the old district in which he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney. I do not consider, however, his removal into the district as being the decisive point in the case. I think his rights were constitutional, and that he could not have been deprived of the emoluments of the office, nor of the office, by reason of any change

DO YOU KNOW

One-Seventh, 336,000, of the Population of Kentucky Is Disfranchised and Not Represented in State Legislature? STUDY THE MAP AND READ THE EXPLANATION BELOW

The above map shows two Senatorial districts in Kentucky, one being the smallest in point of population and Democratic, while the other shows the largest in point of population and Republican in politics. One State Senator is allowed the Democrats for 28,000 population, while one State Senator is allowed the Republicans in the mountains for 163,000 population, 1910 census. In other words it takes about five and six-sevenths Republicans to equal one Democrat, or 163,000 citizens are disfranchised in the Seventeenth Senatorial district alone. But this is only one illustration of the most outrageous gerrymandering that was ever practiced in any State in the Union. Take the Thirty-third Senatorial district, which is in the mountains and composed of ten counties, Clay, Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Harlan, Martin, Perry and Pike, with a population of 145,075. Its area is 3,282 square miles. Compare it with the Twenty-third Democratic district shown on the map.

Then turn your attention to the Representative districts. Here the gerrymandering was even more unprincipled. Hancock county is the Twenty-ninth Representative district with a population of only 8,512 and an area of 195 square miles. It has one Representative in the State Legislature. On the other hand, the Republican Ninety-third district in the mountains, composed of Bell, Harlan, Leslie and Perry counties, has a population of 59,244 and an area of 1,871 square miles, with one Representative.

Taking all the Senatorial and Representative districts, it was shown by the Court of Appeals that 336,000, or one-seventh, of the population of Kentucky is disfranchised. It was to right such a flagrant wrong as this that Judge O'Rear declared he would keep the Legislature in session for two years, if necessary. Remembering the blood of our forefathers from Lexington to Yorktown, would the enfranchisement of 336,000 citizens be expensive at such a cost? IS IT ANY WONDER, IN VIEW OF THESE FACTS, THAT BECKHAM, HALEY & CO. HAVE ISSUED ORDERS TO JAMES, MCGEARY, MCDERMOTT, ET AL., TO BEAT THE TOM-TOM OF NATIONAL ISSUES AND AVOID RELIGIOUSLY ANY DISCUSSION OF STATE ISSUES?

that might have been made in the territory of the district, and I am of this opinion, even though he had not removed into a county of the old district.

So, even if the Court of Appeals should go so far as to say that the provision of the Act of 1910 creating the 34th District, which undertakes to place Snyder in that district, would make the law unconstitutional—which I do not apprehend would ever be the case—still in my judgment that would not create a vacancy in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, so far as Snyder is concerned, because if the law was thus held to be unconstitutional the new district would simply be relegated back into its position in connection with the district that it occupied before the new act, and Snyder would still be Commonwealth's Attorney of the old district.

My judgment is that the law creating the 34th Judicial District is constitutional, as it protected the rights of the officers then in office, and there is not vicious or in violation of any provision of the Constitution of the State, the Legislature under that instrument having the power in its discretion to create new judicial districts, so long as it keeps within the limits provided in the Constitution.

Jas. Breathitt
Attorney General.

Government Mine Rescue Car Here

The Government Mine Rescue Car in charge of Mr. William Burke, was in this city the latter part of last week and gave demonstrations, showing how the miners are rescued from the mines after an explosion, and methods of first aid to the injured and how used. The car was also equipped with all kinds of life-saving apparatus, such as oxygen helmets and etc. Mr. Burke was assisted in giving these demonstrations by Perry V. Cole, Assistant State Inspector of Mines, much of the apparatus being the same as that now used by the Inspectors of this State. The Car left Monday morning for other points in Knox and Bell counties and was accompanied by Mr. Cole, who will remain with the car while in this district. Mr. Burke was formerly one of the Assistant Inspectors of Mines of this State before accepting a position with the Government. In the examination he was required to take before being eligible for the position he made the highest average of any man in this service in the U. S., which speaks well for Kentucky and the high standard as required of the Inspection Department of this State.

DR. HEIZER

Last Friday Dr. Heizer, of the State Board of Health, of Bowling Green, lectured on sanitation and preventable diseases at the Chapel of Union College and made a very interesting and instructive address. The Board of Education of Knox county sent out invitations and urged that every school teacher in the county dismiss school on that day and attend, as this lecture was of much more value to them than the routine of work would be. A very large number of them obeyed the request and none were caused to regret the time taken. The large Chapel room was packed to the overflowing and the hall ways were also crowded and the people were greatly benefitted. The great trouble is that when they go back to their homes they soon forget about these things that are so important to them and do not give enough of their attention to these subjects of such vital importance. Everyone that heard him realized that every word he spoke was the truth, and if we could have some one like him to tell it to us every day, there would be less sickness and death in our communities.

(Through oversight this item was omitted last week.)

Stephens' Friends Have Enthusiastic Meeting

Last Friday was the day set at Barbourville for a meeting of all the friends of Mr. Stephens, to talk over his prospects in this County. The meeting hour came; the crowd gathered, just as it has often before. It consisted of T. J. Wyatt and L. W. Hampton, two distinguished Republican office seekers. That was the full crowd. Much enthusiasm was displayed by this monstrous crowd and it looks like Stephens will receive at least two votes here.

DEFEAT WAS GOOD FOR THEM

The people did a good thing in defeating some of the candidates in the July Democratic primary, and would have done a better job had they defeated more of them. Any man worth $200.00.—Who plays the Race Tracks, with a string of horses and whoops and yells around about arresting Caleb Powers—incidentally and directly boosting his personal bravery and then refuse to pay a Ten Dollar announcement bill to a Country Newspaper edited by a one fingered, man hasn't the courage of a buffalo gnat and is adisgrace to the democratic ticket and should be scratched off by the Committee.

Shall we name the man? Did you ever in your life see or hear of but one such man? Caleb Powers shines like a diamond in a mud hole by the side of him.

Another one, who was defeated is in a rather miserable plight also who lives near a little place called Olmstead, Logan county, Ky. We may designate next week. People should know such cattle.—The Livingston County Banner.

Notice to Teachers.

The Superintendent has received the information that the teachers of Public Schools of Knox county will be paid Saturday October 14.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY

J. M. ROBERTSON, Pres. F. R. BARNER, Vice Pres.
ROBT. W. COLE, Cashier. W. R. BARNER, Ass. Cashier

Why is the First National Bank the place to keep your money?

1. The strength of a bank depends largely upon the value of its assets, the wealth of its stockholders and its surplus profit fund. This bank has the largest surplus profit fund of any bank in this section of the State. The combined wealth of its stockholders is more than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) and the bank owns assets worth nearly Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, ($200,000) and it owns its own bank building.

2. Its books are balanced daily. It keeps each person's account correct to a cent. They appreciate your business and give fair and courteous treatment to all, and will help you in your business in every way consistent with careful banking.

3. This is a National Bank and therefore the government of the United States helps this bank to protect every dollar that is deposited in it. This bank carries burglar and fire insurance, and have a large time combination lock steel vault, best in this section of the country in which to keep the funds of the bank.

Call and examine the bank. Get acquainted with its officers and learn their method of doing business. You are always welcome.

SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Carry O'Rear, Bradley, Langley and Others on Whirlwind Campaign

To Make Speeches at Points Along Railroad in Knox, Bell and Harlan Counties

Judge Edward C. O'Rear and a party consisting of Hon. John W. Langley, Senator Wm. O. Bradley and other leading Republicans, will leave on a special train from Corbin, on Wednesday morning, Oct. 26th, over the C. V. Division, stopping at Grays and Emanuel for short speeches, and will address the people at Barbourville. He will again speak from the train at Artemus, Flat Lick, Elys and Four Mile, and will make a longer address at Pineville. From there, they will go to Wasioto and then up the Wasioto and Black Mountain Railroad to Harlan.

Judge O'Rear will speak at Williamsburg on October 25th, at 1 p. m., and at Corbin at 7 o'clock that night.

On the 19th he speaks at Edmondson; at Lancaster on the 20th; 21st at Somerset; 23rd at Versailles; Berea on the 23rd at 7 o'clock, p. m., and at Melce on 24th at 1 p. m.

Mrs. Sarah Hughes at Head of Rebecas in Kentucky

Mrs. Sarah Hughes was last week elected to the State Presidency of the Rebecca Degree of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. There are nearly 30,000 Odd Fellows in the State of Kentucky, and it has been in vogue for nearly Seventy years and this is the first honor conferred upon one of the Members of the order in the 11th District, except that one to Mr. Todd, of Middlesboro, who served as Grand Patriarch of the Encampment for one term.

This goes to show that Barbourville when she goes after anything, she always lands, and now we have and will soon have be Honored in this city with three who have represented the heads of three secret Societies. Hon. James D. Black, served as Grand Master of the Kentucky Masons. W. H. McDonald, as Great Sachem of the Improved Order of Red Men and now Mrs. Hughes is at the head of the Rebecas of the State. Hon. William Carson Black will soon be Grand High Priest of the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, of the State, and in 1913, Chas. Davis will be Great Sachem of the Improved Order of Red Men.

We have some very notable men from this city, who go into other countries, who certainly have made their mark.

We speak for Mrs. Hughes, that she will make for the Rebecas one of the best Presidents that has yet taken the matter in hand and will add much to the Order in this part of the State.

New Plan of Campaign

The Republican Campaign Committee has instituted a new and novel plan of campaign. Graphophone records of speeches of Judge O'Rear, Senator Bradley and Congressman Langley have been made and these, together with moving picture illustrations will be sent out all over the State.

Their schedule for Knox County is as follows:

Grays,	Mon., Sept. 16,	1 p. m.
Wilton,	"	" 7 "
Artemus,	Tues.,	" 17 1 "
Warren,	"	" 7 "
Mouth Road Fork,	"	" 18 1 "
Elys,	"	" 7 "

They will probably be sent to other places not here mentioned but it has not yet been arranged.

There is an old adage that says that misfortunes never come singly and this certainly applied to us last week. On last Thursday as usual, we went to press and expected to have the paper out on time, but after starting the press we had a slight breakdown. This was just the beginning of a series of accidents and as fast as one was repaired something else would break. Finally about 8 p. m. Saturday we succeed in getting out the mailing list after one of the worst runs of luck we had ever experienced. We may have as bad luck some time in the future but if it gets any worse it certainly will have to go some.

On Monday of this week E. L. Stephens, Independent candidate for Circuit Judge, procured a few copies of the Advocate and he, together with George Johnson who will be a candidate for the same office on the Democratic ticket if he can ever succeed in getting the required number of names to his petition, and R. L. Pope, who thinks he is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, started out on a speaking tour over Knox County, using the Advocate as his text book, trying to make the voters and citizens believe that the things that have been published about him are untrue.

One of his main grievances is that he cannot secure space in any newspaper in Knox County in which to make his announcement. Just how he reached this conclusion or made this wonderful discovery remains a mystery to us, for he never applied to this office for space since we have had charge of it. Had he done so the result would have been the same. When E. L. Stephens bolted his party and started out as an Independent he virtually declared war against the Republican party, and from those who might have been friendly toward him before this he most assuredly should not expect any sympathy after he has sold himself and his party for the dim hope of a political office. When a man lets his personal greed over-ride his better impulses and the duties he owes to his party, or thinks he is better than his party, he need expect no aid through these columns.

Last week Mr. McDermott, of the Peoples News, answered an article appearing in the Advocate of the week previous, in which Mr. Clark had made some statements referring to the speech made here by Mr. E. J. McDermott, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and seemed peevish at some of the things said. Mr. Clark seemed to look at it in a different light and thought that he had paid him a compliment by taking his wife to the speaking and staying until he was through.

Last week's issue of the Peoples News contained a very humorous (?) article in regard to a mistaken identity in which Caleb Powers was the leading character, which they had clipped from the Louisville Times, another Democratic newspaper.

There is another story that they did not publish, probably overlooked, in which Caleb Powers was very prominently connected but in this instance the other character was E. J. McDermott, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

Scene.—Same lobby of same hotel in Williamsburg.

Time.—Same week.

Characters.—Same Caleb Powers, D. W. Clark and E. J. McDermott.

Scene 1.—D. W. Clark and Mr. McDermott in conversation in lobby of hotel. (Enter Mr. Powers.) Mr. Clark says, "I want you to meet my friend, Mr. Powers."

Mr. McDermott.—"I am pleased to meet you, Mr. Powers, or I—er—are you our local campaign manager?"

Mr. Powers.—"No, I am not."

Mr. McDermott.—"Well, anyway I want to talk with you further about our campaign."

Mr. McDermott continues to talk with Mr. Powers, discussing his campaign until supper time. Mr. Powers then excuses himself after Mr. McDermott had made an appointment to meet him in the lobby again after supper.

Scene 2.—Same lobby.

Appointed time.

Characters.—None. Mr. McDermott had learned of his blunder and could not face the music.

Strange that the Peoples News should have overlooked this very interesting story since its details are so nearly alike the one which they did publish.

WILL STEPHENS ANSWER?

Why did E. L. Stephens, if he is a Republican and desired to be a candidate for Circuit Judge, fail to enter into the Republican Primary last winter? If he felt so inclined, he could have entered without objection; there was plenty of time to make the race. The conditions and rules laid down by the party were fair and were declared to be so by the State Central Committee. Each of the candidates who did enter the primary were from Knox County, which left the whole of Whitley county open and free to vote for a man of their choice. If Mr. Stephens was popular with his neighbors, it would have given him a decided advantage, but he did not enter. He did not offer to enter so far as known. Nobody wanted him to enter. He stood by and looked on, and took some part for one of the candidates, and made some fuss for one of the candidates. He took his choice then, and once having taken his choice and participated in the primary, he is bound by the result, and as an honorable up-right man, if he is such, he would today be standing by the results of that Primary, and would be assisting in the election of the Republican Nominee. If he was a loyal, decent Republican instead of being a so-called Independent he would be supporting the Republican nominee, because no Republicans ever fight the Republican nominee when there is no question about the fairness and the squareness of the convention or Primary which nominates the candidate. There is no question about the regularity and the fairness of the Primary, which was called to nominate a Circuit Judge. No one undertakes to say that primary was not properly called, and that reasonable and fair rules and regulations were approved by the District Committee as well as by the State Central Committee of the Republican party, and that the whole affair was conducted reasonably and fairly and that Judge Sampson got the nomination in an honorable and fair way and manner.

If Stephens had been tied down or held and bound by some one, he might have an excuse, but nothing like that was done. He was a free agent. He could have entered the primary, but he did not. If he was a Republican in spirit and in truth, he certainly would not now be running under such circumstances when it means so much to Judge O'Rear and the balance of the State ticket to have harmony and unity in our party. A few hundred votes might mean disaster to the Republican party, but it seems Stephens, though he claims to be a Republican, is willing to sink the whole State ticket to gratify an inordinant ambition to run for Circuit Judge, because a few unscrupulous schemers and unworthy politicians, who are opposed to Judge Sampson, are hissing him on, when he and they all knew and are generally willing to admit Stephens cannot win. The Democrats want to get up confusion, they like to encourage Stephens, although they do not expect to vote for him, they expect only to divide the Republican vote and to aid themselves.

One of Stephens' chief advisors and supporters at Williamsburg, stated the whole matter clearly when he said: "Stephens like a puppy dog, wanted someone to push his tail so he could bark, and I felt like I could kill two birds with one stone by doing the pushing, satisfying Stephens unreasonable desire to run, and at the same time cause Judge Sampson to spend some money. We all know Stephens cannot win, but it pleases him to have us encourage him."

Everyone acquainted with the situation knows the above is a clear and concise statement of the real situation. Stephens did desire to run and he wanted someone to encourage him, to "push his tail". He hunted for people asking them to encourage him, but instead of encouraging him, he got discouragement. A few people who had ulterior motives, who desired to ruin the Republican party and to embarrass it, encouraged Stephens to run; not for Stephens' good, not for the Republican party's good, not for the interest of good Government, but in order to get up confusion and strife and bickery in the Republican ranks, and thereby to hurt Judge O'Rear and the balance of the ticket in the State race.

But the scheme has fallen flat. The people are not deceived they will not be misled; there will be a unity of purpose in the Republican ranks and when the election comes, there will be 5000 to 6000 majority for the entire Republican ticket in this Judicial District.

Stephens and Whiskey

E. L. Stephens is talking about his cleanliness and purity and how he would like to take politics and put it on a higher plane, and that he does not expect to use any money or liquor in his campaign. This Right Reverend Apostle of Purity has not always been this, according to good authority. Recently, he was a candidate for County Attorney in Whitley county. He used large quantities of liquor and large sums of money in his interest in that campaign, according to good authority. He bought so extensively of liquor that those who furnished it and accepted his checks in payment, informed us that the checks were larger than Mr. Stephens' bank account and the bank refused to pay them. The checks were returned. The bill was just. Mr. Stephens had ordered and used the liquor. He had given his worthless check in payment. After the election the liquor dealers had to go to Mr. Stephens' town and hunt him up and threaten to sue him and expose him before this Apostle of Purity would pay the bill he had contracted. This may be Stephens' idea of how to purify politics, but we do not believe the people of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District will agree with this. First:—They do not believe in the use of liquor; and Second:—They do not believe in a candidate buying liquor and giving his worthless check for it; and Third:—They do not believe in a man contracting a debt he will not pay.

A Democrat and A Nothing

One of the neighbors of E. L. Stephens, and a citizen of Whitley county, writing from Siler, Ky., sends in a list of names of land owners of Whitley county whom E. L. Stephens robbed or attempted to rob of their land, and he informs us that these citizens are ready and willing to make affidavits to the facts, and that he will take pleasure in assisting to prepare these affidavits.

Another citizen of Whitley county, writing from Jellico Creek, under date of October 9th, says that that is the voting precinct in which E. L. Stephens was raised, and he begins his letter like this:

"I am informed that there is two candidates out against Judge Sampson: one a Democrat, the other a Nothing. STILL I live in the same District that the Nothing was raised in. He has run two races for County Offices, and always got defeated in his home District, and for that matter, all over the county. If he gets many votes he will have to go to Knox county to get them, I am sure. The people on the West side of Jellico Mountain are tired of Independent candidates, and we are all good Republicans and mean to stay with the ticket and the Log Cabin."

We learn from other sources that Mr. E. L. Stephens in his various campaigns over Whitley county has never been able to get his closest neighbors to vote for him. Jellico Creek, where he was raised, has always voted against him. And we are informed further that the town of Williamsburg, which has a population of more than 2,000, in his recent race for County Attorney, gave him less than 100 votes. There must be something the matter with a fellow for whom his neighbors will not vote.

BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY

On October 9th, at 10 o'clock a. m. E. L. Stephens, George Johnson and R. L. Pope made speeches here to about 20 voters, composed of equal number of Republicans and Democrats. Stephens began his talk by telling conditions in Whitley county. He said everything was rotten down there. He claims the courts have failed to squash violation of the law; have traded out for political purposes and have committed all sorts of crimes and debauchery. He says that even judgments of the court have been so corrupted that the Court of Appeals have reversed nine out of eleven cases. He claims that even the Jury Commissioners have acted very indecent, saying that one of them, a doctor and another a merchant, have arranged to have all those who owe them bills placed on juries in order that they might collect their bills. He talked of the nineteen who had been shot between recent sessions of court and of the sixty-nine who held government license to sell liquor. In fact, he made Whitley county the blackest spot on the face of the earth. We on Poplar, are wondering why he speaks thus of his home county, unless it is because they have buried him twice, politically, with his face down and are now about to bury him for good and last time.

have earned the Judge Sampson himself to be a but now he bolts the ticket and comes out against the Republican nominee, a thing that no true Republican ever does. *

How can a true Republican vote for such a bolter? In none of his speeches anywhere did he urge any Republican to come to the election to vote for the Republican ticket, which was to us conclusive evidence that he, himself, is the chief object of his ambition.

The fact is that the Republicans have thrown him down so hard that he cares little about the success of his party, and had he not become a candidate, his voice would never have been heard in this campaign. In our opinion his candidacy is the result of a gigantic Democratic conspiracy to lessen the Republican majority in Knox and Whitley counties. He has always been a tool for the Democratic party, and especially of some Williamsburg Democrats.

He declared that he could get no space in the papers of the District for announcement or campaign literature. Another thing we do believe. We know that he can get all the space in one Barbourville paper he wishes, provided that he pays for it like any other gentlemen. He declared with great eloquence that no man ever ran for office with so many charges against him as his opponent, yet he mentioned only the Campbell Coal land suit. We think that Judge Sampson has amply defended himself in this matter and has answered his Petition in the Court, and has as many affidavits showing his innocence as they have showing his guilt, and no man can "determine" the results. The fact is, Judge Sampson had a contract with the Campbell Coal Company to take this property at a certain price per acre. He bought it and paid for it out of his own pocket, and turned it over to the Company, as per his contract with them. The people from whom he bought in Knox County are satisfied and are all for Sampson for anything. The only question in the matter is, did the Company get the acreage for which they paid? The land is there, it is not running, and if there is a shortage, the surveyor's chain will tell the tale.

We know that Stephens has more unanswered charges against him than Judge Sampson, and we think he had better pay up his honest debts and clear up his own character before he begins to advise others, or either censure his opponent. We are going to act upon the old adage,

"A man is innocent until his guilt is proven". The whole of the matter is, we want a man who is true to the principles of the Republican party and not a bolter. Give us a man who believes in his party, for when you find a man true to his party, you invariably find a man of character.

At the close of the speech two democrats cheered him a little, and so for as we can learn, there is not a Republican on Little Poplar Creek that will vote for him. We are for the entire ticket, and especially for Judge Sampson. We are for him because he is an aggressive, upright gentleman; because he is progressive and public spirited; because he is, from the crown of his head to sole of his feet, inside and outside, a true blue Republican. We urgently request every Republican to come to the election on November 7th, and stencil under the Log Cabin and thereby help us to put to silence forever the bolters and common enemy of the Mountain people—the Democratic party.

(Signed) A Republican from Little Poplar.

vs Eli Goins attempted to take some land from Eli Goins, who then lived on Poplar Creek, in Whitley County, Kentucky. The suit was brought by this Company against Mr. Goins, and after a furious battle, justice triumphed and Mr. Goins was adjudged the owner of the land, and the Corporation was non-plus. The Louisville Property Company then bought the land from Mr. Goins and agreed to pay him a reasonable price, and paid part of the purchased price down, the remainder due in the future. Stephens knew all of this and was representing the Company and did represent the Company as against Mr. Goins in all the litigations. Afterwards Mr Goins sold out and moved to the far West, the balance of the purchased price had not been paid

On his land. Then Stephens, thinking that he could get advantage of this old illiterate farmer, brought a suit in the Whiteley Court, claiming that Goins owed him an attorney fee in the law suit with the Louisville Property Co., and garnished the Louisville Property Co. for the balance of the purchased money owing Mr. Goins. It is a singular fact now that Stephens claimed as an attorney fee the exact amount due by the Corporation to Mr. Goins for the land.

It must be remembered that Mr. Goins had never employed Stephens in any legal matter and Stephens had never represented Goins in any matter; But on the contrary, Stephens had been lawing for the Company against Mr. Goins and had given him a great deal of trouble and caused him very much expense. But Stephens thinking that Goins was so far away that he would perhaps know nothing about the matter until a judgment had been secured and money paid over to Stephens, undertook to plunder him, under the forms of the law, by claiming that Goins owed him a lawyer fee, and thus get all the balance of the purchased price of the land. The suit was brought by Stephens and the money garnisheed, but somehow Mr. Goins learned of his attempted theft, and frustrated it by appearing on the scene and resisting the suit. Upon the hearing of the matter.

it turned out that instead of Stephens being an attorney for Goins, he was an attorney for the Company which had been lawing Goins and had collected the attorney fee off of the Company on the one side and was then attempting to collect an attorney fee off of Goins on the other side. In other words Stephens was trying to be on both sides of that case, and he was trying to take from a man who moved away from the Country, money he knew was not his own. His exposure in this matter does not reflect credit upon Mr. Stephens. One who will wrong or attempt to rob one person will do so another person the same way if given a chance.

We want every citizen and voter in Knox county to read the ADVOCATE. Why? Because it is a paper published for the best interests of Knox county and the Mountains of Kentucky. It is the official organ of the Republican party in Knox county, and for the sub-district, composed of eleven counties of the Eleventh District, and is the only Republican paper in the county.

The Campaign is now on and the Republicans are making the hardest fight ever waged in history for Judge O'Rear and the hopablean Ticker, because their platform means a betterment of conditions for the Mountain People and equal recognition with other sections of the State in Legislation.

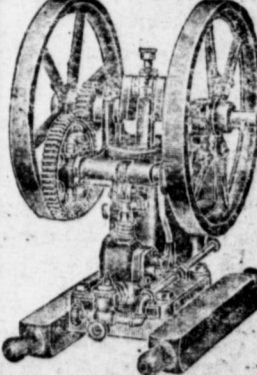

Read our offer following if you doubt what we say:

For every person who secures for us 5 yearly subscriptions, paid in advance, we will mail the Mountain Advocate one year free.

We want you to read the Advocate, especially during the campaign, for we are going to publish everything that will be of interest to our citizens.

Subscribe, or if you have not the money to do this, get us up a club of 5 and we will do it for you. If you can't do this, borrow your neighbor's paper, and if that is not possible and you can not get the paper any other way, write us and we will send it to you any way, cash or no cash. Read it, we tell you, read it. It is to your interest more than ours. Do not wait until after the election, as this offer will not hold good after then, but DO IT NOW.

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there a father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and tire found again.

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years; they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked down pillar to post for only 50 years, until it was discovered by a college collector. It was then sold to the War Department to secure the collection—Ex-President Charles Field and General Benjamin P. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.

For the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War, for the one accurate, impartial history of the War of the Rebellion, for the one true story of the War, you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.
